Predictions from the New York Herald: On Saturday fair to partly overcast weather will prevail, with siight temperature changes and light variable winds, and on Sunday partly overcast weather, with slowly rising temperatures.

Observations in Norwich.

The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday:

The loan exhibition in the Converse art gallery under the analysics of Faith Trumbull chapter, D. A. R. in honor In honor of the anniversary of Norwich, opens at I p. m. on Saturday. There has been a generous response to the appeal for articles connected with Norwich history and the exhibit is crowded with a choice and varied collection of ancient things. Nothing less than 75 years old has been thought of sufficient antiquity to be interesting, and from this the pieces date backward through Revolutionary and colonial days to the date of the founders of Norwich themselves.
